

KidsWrites

2020-21: Time Capsule

Writing Prompts

*These writing prompts are a tool you can use to get started.
You are not required to use one.*

If you were making a real time capsule, what would you put in it?

The pandemic has caused a lot of big feelings. What advice would you give to people when they are having big feelings? What do you do when you need to calm down?

What fun places are you looking forward to going to when the pandemic is over?

What are you most looking forward to when we go back to normal in-person school?

What is online school like?

Who have you been able to spend more time with because we are all staying home so much more?

Write a letter to all the kids going through this pandemic from the fictional perspective of a kid who was alive during the 1918 Pandemic.

Imagine there is a pandemic 100 years in the future and write a letter to kids in the future.

Write a thank you letter to essential workers, which includes doctors, nurses, waste management, grocery, and delivery workers.

Write a letter to yourself from yourself in March.

Describe how elections work in your own words.

What would you do if you became president?

Why is it so exciting that Kamala Harris will be the next Vice President of the United States?

If you could ask President Elect Joe Biden to do something for our country, what would it be?

What are you looking forward to this holiday season?